

CROWN MINING ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTOR AND STOCK OPTION GRANT

TORONTO, CANADA, September 5, 2019 - Crown Mining Corporation (“Crown” or the “Company”) (TSX Venture: CWM) is pleased to announce that Stephen Hughes has been appointed to the Board of Directors, effective immediately.

Mr. Hughes is an economic geologist with over 20 years technical and management experience covering exploration, development and mine geology. Specializing in porphyry copper-gold, skarn and epithermal systems he has led the discovery-delineation and development of more than 2 billion tonnes of copper-gold resources in the Asia-Pacific region since 1999. Steve has worked with Freeport McMoRan at the giant Grasberg open pit and underground mines and more recently as Vice President of Exploration for Asiamet Resources where he was responsible for the development of the BKM copper, BKZ polymetallic and Beutong porphyry Cu-Au deposits. Steve is currently CEO of Carube Copper. Steve holds an honours degree in geology from Saint Mary's University in Nova Scotia

"We are delighted to have Mr. Hughes join our board," commented Stephen Dunn, President and CEO of Crown. "Mr. Hughes brings more solid technical mining expertise to Crown as we advance our 100% controlled Moonlight-Superior Copper Project in Northeast California."

In addition, the Company announces that incentive stock options to purchase up to 200,000 common shares of the Company have been granted to Mr. Hughes pursuant to the Company's stock option plan and subject to any regulatory approval. Each stock option is exercisable at $0.10 for a period of three years from the grant date.
